What would you do with 1000 gallons of peanut butter?

"I would peanut-butter wrestle, but only if it were smooth."
- Senior Sarah Biscard -

"I would fill my swimming pool with it, then cover myself with jelly, and jump off my roof into my pool."
- Senior Chad Small -

"I would donate it to the Micheal Jackson heal the World Foundation."
- Junior Ramiro Lopez -

"I would put it all over my body and run around Central Park screaming, I hate NewYork!"
- Sophomore Brandon Lyle -

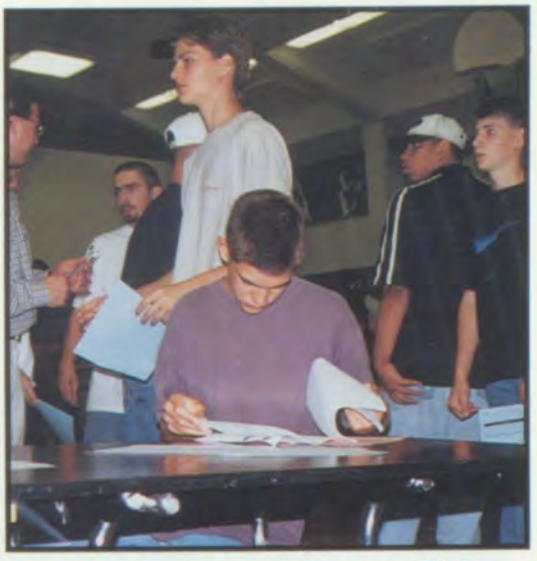
"I would sell it on the black market"
- Junior Greg Hopkins -

"I would smear it all over the gym floor and have everyone run laps."
- Sophomore Holly Wolff -

"I would smear it on raw fish and eat it while watching the Jerry Lewis telethon"
- Freshman Whitney Passmore

"I would bury John Smith in it"
- Freshman Kandice Grote -

Registration was the first official day of High School for the freshmen. Above Jay Ocanaz, Johonny Lamb, Josh Prester, Josh Davin, Travis Kelly, and Billy Benett wait anxiously to get through the long line of freshmen.



Students were busy filling out many papers on registration day.

Mr. Smith explains to Warren Baker just exactly what qualities to look for in a "good" sock.

BLUE DEVIL PEP ASSEMBLY

All in the Band and Choir joined in for the fun at this years Pep assembley and showed the Froshmen what school spirit is all about. In return the Froshmen definitley showed what spirit they had.

The Seniors last stand off to show whos the boss. On their feet and ready to send their football team to yet another great victory. The Sophmores look on to the Seniors in hoping to one day to be as great as them.

Zach and Kristi show their school spirit in a face off with a rope of licorice. Who's got the guts?

POWDER PUFF

Jammin' Eleven of 97' VS. Terminators of 98'ers

The Seniors pose for a quick picture not intimidated at all by the Junior squad. All their confidence paid off the busted moves left and right and straight down the middle of the Junior line in a victory to seal the win.

Trying to help get the crowd involved to help their team prevail the Junior Cheerleaders show their moves in an attempt to beat the Jammin' 11 of 97'.

WA-HI-ROYALTY

All dressed up and only time for the Football game. The Court strutted their stuff at the Homecoming game durring half time.

The crowd cheered on as the Homecoming court made their way on to the field for the crowning of the King and Queen. On the fashionable note the Queen canidates were escourted by their fathers in late model Volkswagon Bugs.

Memorable Moments

The Spirit Court were presented at the Assembley on Monday. with there escorts below.

Smiles steemed across all the girls faces even in the decision of the Queen.

Courtney Fuller, Matt Lohrman, Sean Smith, Rebecca Smith were all crowned for their proper positions on the court. They helped the school find their school spirit and show their support for all the weeks sporting events.

With escorts: Leslie Sesser, Christine Wade, Nicole Bankhead, Amy Brennen, Ned Abenroth, Christina Borden. And in the background is Mr. Roberts watching over the crowd to make sure things didn't get out of hand.

The lives of truest heroism are those in which there are no great deeds to look back upon. It is the little things well done that go to make up a successful and truly good life.

Theodore Roosevelt

Megan Marie Conner

December 21, 1979--February 7, 1996

For all she taught us about ourselves, for all the lives she touched with her smile and for living a life that showed us what it means to be a real hero-Thanks Megan.

I'd like the memory of me
to be a happy one,
I'd like to leave an afterglow of smiles when life is done.
I'd like to leave an echo
whispering softly down
the ways,
Of happy times and laughing times and bright and sunny days.

I'd like the tears of those who grieve, to dry before the sun
Of happy memories that I leave when life is done.

In Loving Memory of

NEW MEMBERS OF THE JUNIOR CLAN

Late in October this year, we interviewed some of the Juniors new at Wa-Hi. We asked them what they thought about Wa-Hi so far; likes and dislikes, and how Wa-Hi is different from the school they previously attended. Here's what we came up with:

Alicia Taylor from Moses Lake HS (Moses Lake, WA) said that even though she misses her friends back home, she really likes it here; she says that "people are more friendly and easier to meet."

Aaron Morgan from Konaweana HS (Kaelakekua, HI) seems to prefer his old school to Wa-Hi. He says that "rules are stricter, classes are harder," and that "Wa-Hi is smaller than Konaweana HS."

Misty Scott from Provo HS (Provo, UT) is one of the few people who actually likes our attendance policy and dress codes. She says that where she came from there were some student safety and attendance problems. She believes that Walla Walla High School policies help protect the student body and keep them in the classroom. However, she did mention that the technology at Wa-Hi is less avancedthan it is in Provo.

Guthrie Cockrill from Palm Springs HS (Palm Springs, CA) also said that our technology is lesscurrent and there are more advanced classes at his old school. However, he likes how our classrooms are clustered together rather than each one in a separate building as they were in Palm Springs. Guthrie also commented on how pretty our campus is.

Nathan Marquis from Central Kitsap HS (Silverdale, WA) says that at his last school all the classes were in one building a couple stories high, and that he likes it a lot better with the campus spread out here at Wa-Hi. He also said that Central Kitsap HS is only a three year high-school; he liked that much better because with all of the freshmen here he says, "it seems like there is a lot of little kids running around."

Norma-Jean Pachal from Evergreen HS (Vancouver, WA) is only used to having four classes in a day, each being eighty minutes long. Instead of semesters they have trimesters, so Wa-Hi is obviously a big change for her.

Shawn Miller from Prescott HS (Prescott, WA) thinks that Wa-Hi is a lot cleaner than Prescott HS. He also said that "the students and staff of Wa-Hi are a lot nicer."

Josh Morris from South Pasadena HS (South Pasadena, CA) agrees with Shawn in that he likes the students and staff here better. He thinks that Wa-Hi has a lot less violence than did his previous school.

BOUNCING THROUGH TIME

Once Upon A Time, on a chunk of land at the end of town stood Walla Walla High School. Anxiously awating for bouncing class to start was the freshmen class. Learning this skill is a very important step for us all.

At that same school, Sophomores were getting the hang of bouncing, a few showing off here and there, and the Juniors demonstrating to the Sophomores "how it's done"; with an added twist to the stunt. This continued on until one Junior bounced well beyond school limits and was sentenced to detention by Mr. Perez and Mr. Fullen. Needless to say, a very important lesson was learned that day: never break the bouncing rules when the security guards are around.

Not too fat off where the well sophisticated Seniors who had already experienced what the underclassmen were discovering. They are now playing it cool and preparing for the long wait to bounce out.

To the Sophomores, being part of the Senior Bouncing class was so unreachable. After all, some of the Sophomores had just gotten their license to bounce and had gotten new pogo sticks, but graduation is still many bounces away.

If you stop to think about it, this is the system of bouncing as follows:

Freshmen bounce by foot.
Sophomores get their license to bounce and then their new pogo sticks.
Juniors bounce up to pogo balls.
And Seniors finish with multipassenger bouncing transportation.

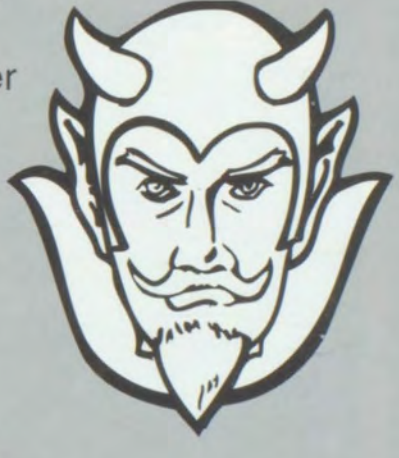
How many licks does it take to get to the center of a Tootsie Pop?

If you calculate the width of the candy and the quarts of saliva in my mouth times the width of my mouth, divided by the circumfrance of the Tootsie Pop, that's how many licks you get.
-Selena Zamora

One, if you can concentrate and lick it real hard, all the candy comes off; my brother did it one time but I can't prove it.
-Thomas Simmons



333, the owl told me.
-Joe Wilkins

I don't know I'm still licking.
-Julianne Zapata

I don't like Tootsie Pops, but it takes 311 for a Blow Pop.
-David Moreno

I just bite through it, my favorite part is the center. Why waste time?

BABY THINK IT OVER

"Baby Think It Over", is the name of the artificial infant that simulates a real live baby. The babies, that are carried around for two days at a time, are there for students to realize how hard it is having a baby. The babies cry whenever they are hungry or need a diaper change. They can cry from five to twenty minutes, depending on when they are satisfied. They have a hole in their back where you insert a key and hold it there till the baby stops crying. If the baby is neglected they have lights in their back that show that your not paying attention to your baby. The babies are offered through the Health and Child Development classes. The babies are usuallly succesful in showing the students the real responsibility of children.

ART DEPARTMENT

Students show various types of artwork.

<-- Here Joey Vargas and Kirsten Hagen work together on making a pot on the spinning wheel.

Below: Teachers at the Art Confernce start the begining process of Raku firing.

Art Teachers Conference

On Oct. 11, 1996 the Wa-Hi Arts department hosted the Fall Professional Day Art Teachers conference. There were 35 teachers who attended. There were two keynote speakers from the W.S.U. Art department. The other four speakers were fellow High School Art teachers.

Demonstrations were given in the process of hand made paper and the firing and post-fire reduction of the Raku pottery. With the Raku process their is always smoke an fire, and the anticipation of results that are never certain. the pots are heated in a portable propane fuiled kiln until goaling red-orange. They are removed with long-handled tongs from the fire and placed into a container that has combustible material. Sawdust, shredded newspaper and pine needles are most often used. The container is closed so the material can not be burned, but rather smolders and smoked in the airtight container. The oxygen is drawn from the glaze and the result is usually a spectacular combination of colors including shiny penny red, green, purple, ochre, maroon, and deep blue. It is an exciting process.

At the art conference teachers demonstrate the Raku process.

"Raku is one of the things that is done in the pottery classed here at Wa-Hi. Pottery, with an emphasis of forming on the wheel, this has gained a lot of interest from the students."

COACH Jim Thacker

"It's been a good season. We did a lot better than what every one expected. We have a young team, so we will have a lot of returning talent that will give us some momentum for next season. They were a fun team to coach and they worked really hard."

Varsity Basketball

The Grayster lays one up for two.

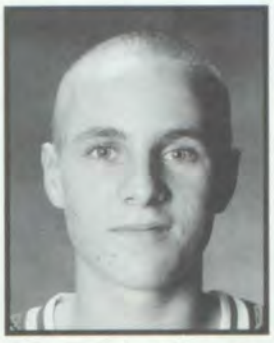
Kyle Bankhead looks on as Matt Price-Hunington shoots a field goal.

Ben Turner and Joey Vargas wait patiently for their other teamates to be called, Zach seems to be distracted.

Spencer Fielding runs onto the court as he is intro duced for the opening ceremonies

Andy Thompson is pushed out of the way as the Australlians try to get the upper hand on the Blue Devils.

Seniors



Spencer Fielding

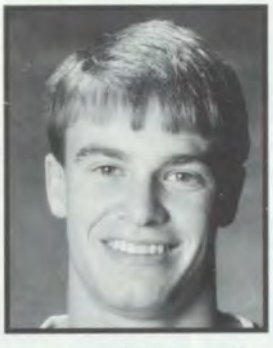
Memorable Moment: When Zach Gray got into a fight with that guy from Pasco. My most embarassing moment was when I missed, uhhh... a shot!!

I remember when Joey Vargas and I McGyvered a radio back to life.
I can't forget when Zach Gray de-pantsed me in a game right in front of our home crowd.

Zach Gray

My greatest memory was when we beat Richland (the #1 team) at home when no one thought we could. I was so embarassed when I got kicked out of a game for kicking the crap out of someone.

Nick Gardner



Jason Grove

Most memorable... when Joey Vargus went out onto the court and forgot to tell someone to go off, he was the sixth man in, he couldn't find anyone to guard he had to walk off. At Kamiakin I was so embarassed when I went onto the court without checking in.

Sean Oliver

I'll always rember when Joey Vargas was the sixth man on the court with no one to guard. Embarassing?... I never do anything embarassing.

Matt Price Huntington

I'll never forget when we beat Richland on my birthday. Most embarassing... my sophmore year Malcom Stewart blocked my 3pt shot in to the 12th row of the parents' section.

Joey Vargas

Most memorable; When I played JV ball I schooled Streufert in basketball and fishing I'll never forget when I was the 6th man on the court and couldn't find anyone to guard. I was so confused i was counting the players with my fingers. It looks like no one else will either.

COACH Jim Smith

"It will probably be the hardest senior class that we've ever had to replace."

Varsity Basketball

Brooke Avery and Jamie Thacker give a smile of victory before a big game.

Brodhead smiles at the camera while Bamford and Zapata have some fun waveing to the good looking guy standing behind the camera man, Angley is busy prepareing for the big game while she colors, and Mires stares into space.

As Rochelle atempts to pass the ball in-bounds, Caroline sprints for an open positon.

left Brooke pecks around the defence while above Jamie and caroline blockout.

Jamie and Brooke strugle for the rebound as Johanna and Caroline wait for the outlet.

Lady Devil Seniors

(below) I'll never forget when I accidently shoved my ice cream cone on the ceiling of Smitty's brand new van! Most embarassing.... On our late night bus ride home from a game we stopped at a mini-mart,half asleep and blind without my contacts, Heidi Maher led me to the bathroom. When I came out, I couldn't find her; I was walking around calling her name, everyone just laughed at me.

Rocky #32

Brooke Avery

(below) Most Memorable... Tripping Brooke in pre-game warm-ups at home vs. Kennewick. Most Embarassing... My freshman year Brooke Avery was yelling out pin her in during a game and I thought she was yelling "period" so I ran out of the game to go check if I had it.

(above) I'll always remember the long bus conversations Roch, Jo, and I had on the way home from games. Most embarassing... I was so embarassed when I got tripped by Dawn(Bam-Bam) while running out for pre-game at home vs. Kennewick.

Roch #14

Rochelle Angley

Bam-Bam #34

Dawn Bamford

(right) I'll never forget when Katie Kress and I sang the National Anthem before every game last year. I was so embarassed when a ref made me tuck in my shirt so far I looked like Urkle.

Brody #22

Jamiee Brodhead

(below) Most memorable... "Rollercoaster!" It's a long story. Most embarassing... A dare I was given, an even longer story.

Heidi-Ho #10

Heidi Maher

Jo #24

Johanna Erelbach

(left) My whole basketball career was so memorable I can't pick out a specific moment. Most embarassing... Brooke and I couldn't wait to go the bathroom, so we used the men's room. As we were walking out, we were given dirty looks by a couple of guys walking in.

(right) My most embarrasing moment was playing offense or defence against Katie Kress. Memorable... singing the "YMCA" song with Dawn at Pasco over the michrophone before the JV game

Krisbie #40

Kristi Ocampo

J. T. #20

Jamie Thacker

(left) Most embarrasing was when I went out onto the court before I was introduced. My most memorable moment from my basketball carrer was getting paid for each basket I made in a game.

Varsity

Times to Remember ...

Imagine this, the gym is silent you hear a loud thud and look down to see Brandy who is now three rows lower than before wondering where the bleachers came from.
When we finally got mrs. Peck to yell and almost got a technical from a ref.
When Lucy almost got in a fight with a chick from Pasco.
When Kate stuffed a girl and took a victory lap around the key.
When Mira got a technical.
When Jessie triped over a line on the floor when no one was around.
When Janie almost got in a fight with the Urkle chick from Wenatchee.
When Lucy got plowed by a line backer from Pasco, then flexed to the crowed.
When MIra expaned our vocabulary with finish words.
When Rachel insisted to Brandy that she was not a rag doll.
"Hallelua"
Julie's colorful faces.
When Jenny scared all of us when she couldn't breath at Richland.
The Davis game when Kate went for a T. K. O.
Audra's famous head fakes.
"These people are "*@!#6"
Christine's avoidance of bus talkes.
And the good ole' question Lucy, Jessie, Kate, and Brandy were always asked, "What Are you guys talking about?"
The age old practice of half court lay-ins.
It was said the best by Jessie Brewer when she said, "We're a team that cusses a lot, can't stay on our feet, and gets in fights all the time!"

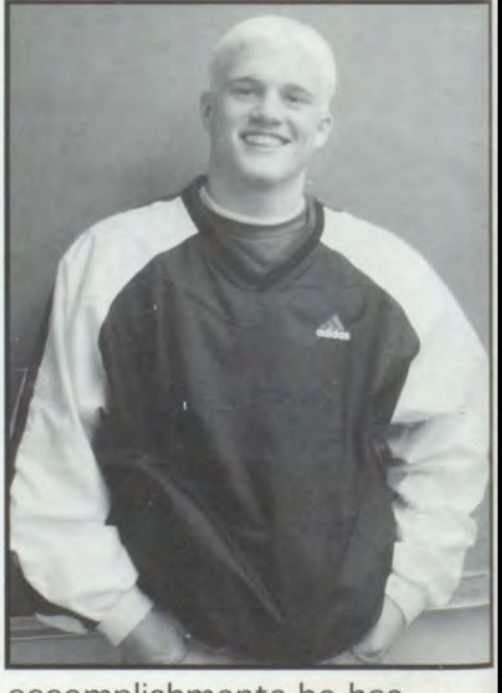
GET SERIOUS

The wrestlers this season were involved in Wrestler Helpers in which the Wa-Hi wrestlers aided in the coaching of basic wresling moves to future wrestlers.

Senior Standout Jared Carter



This season was not at all a failure especially for Senior Jared Carter. The only Wa-Hi wrestler to advance into the State level of competition. there Jared placed 6th among wrestlers in his weight division at the state tournament. Above, Jared gives a smile after his accomplishments he has achieved throughout the years only to finish his high school carrer as a Regional Champion and a state competitor.

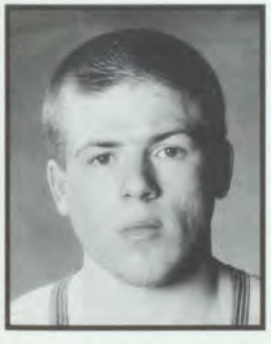
Big Blue

Jared Carter

Most memorable... When I was regional champion and went to state my sienor year. Most embarrassing... dressing up in the goofy little tights we have to wrestle in.

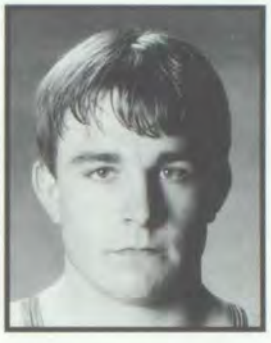
Thomas Garnica

My most memorable moment was winning. Embarrassing? I never get embarrassed.



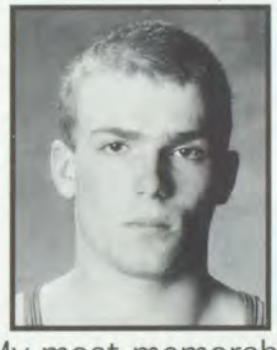
Jason walters

I'll never forget getting my first varsity win after practicing mornings and after school as hard as I could My most embarrassing moment was when I got put in a "Saturday Night Ride," (a very funny looking position) at a home match in front of a lot of people.



David Brewer

My most memorable was when I won the Wa-Hi invite this year. The most embarrassing time of my wrestleing career was when I got pinned at districts in 25 seconds my sophomore year.



Josh Miller

My most memorable moment was when I defeted a Senior from Kennewick as a Sophomore in double overtime. After that the most embarrassing thing happened to me; after I won I lost my entire lunch within 10 minutes of my victory.

Al

Head COACH Sievertsen

It was a year begun with much hope and enthusiasm. The enthusiasm never wavered, but as it became obvious that we were not to have compitition at a couple of the lighte wieghts and were very unexperianced in some others, The hope was replaced by resolve. These wrestlers resolved that they would represent themselves to the best of their abilities and that they would improve with each week of the season. to that end they were very successful and should be proud of the manner in which they represented themselves, their community, and their school.

Dean

Asst COACH Hanson

This years team started the year with few wrestlers and little experiance. By the time we took Jared Carter to the state tournement we had even fewer wrestlers. This sport is just too demanding for the average athlete and those wrestlers who finished the season made dramaticchanges to become both physically and mentally tougher. This is the only at Wa-Hi that practices hard twice a day and these young men have accomplished a great deal no matter what their win-lose columns look like. I'm proud of them all and what they have accomplished

Chuck

Asst COACH Ahsmuhs

The wrestlers improved a lot over the season, I just wish some of them could have gotten started at a younger age hitting the mats. Overall I think that they have accomplished a great deal and had a great season.

Wrestling

The Varsity boys slowly make their way down to the other end of the court.

The Cheerleaders attempt to rally the crowd in an intense game at Wa-Hi.

Jo streches for the rebound.

Fabrizzio asks himself one more time, "Why me?"

Jamie heads down the court in hopes of reuniting with her team.

Kyle attempts to deny the shot as Jared and Jason await the potential rebound.

The JV team takes five as a time out is called to regather their strategy.

Jared and Andy wait patiently for the free throws to be made.

Chris stables himself before regaining control and winning yet again.

"Do a little dance ...make a little love... get down tonight, get down tonight."

The boys look on to the game in suspence as the excitement builds.

David "Jumps on it," as him and Fabbrizzio go at it hard on the mats.

"Uh... What do I do now coach?" Spencer asked as he contenplates what to do.

"What you lookin at!"

"What a shot!" Andy and Jared stare in awe.

Jared elevates to the occasion in a tough game against Ike . To which we came out on top to get the victory

Ashley, Kacey, erin, and Andrea laugh at a loke while cheering on the varsity boys.

WA-HI J.R.O.T.C.

Walla Walla High School J.R.O.T.C has been in existence since 1919, the program has changed its mission to focus more on civilian applications, but has through the years always placed leadership education as the base of J.R.O.T.C.
The mission of J.R.O.T.C. is to motivate young people to become better Americans.
Our Battalion is broken into 4 companies which are commanded by 1LTS The Battalion also has a student staff in which (like a military staff) every member is solely responsible for one aspect of the battalions affairs and actions. Each member can also be assigned additional duties as ordered by the Battalion Commander.

Bye, Bye Birdie

Bye, Bye Birdie the 1997 musical was based on the story of Conrad Birdie (who is Elvis portrayed) played by Tyson Kaup. The singing carrer of this hot teen idol sky-rocketed in the 1950's and it was put on hold when he was drafted to the war. Rosie played by Anne Mckendry (to the left of Conrad) is the girlfriend of Conrad's manager Albert played by Ned Abenroth, and all she wants is to make his name famous, so they create a contest and the winner gets to kiss Conrad, and this would make the record company famous.

Koren Frost plays lucky Kim MacAfee, who gets to kiss Conrad.

CAST MEMBERS:

Ned Abenroth, Anne Mckendry, Tyson Kaup, Koren Frost, Sarah Hatch, Randi Sue Robbins, Santana Castillo, Joe Kabeto, Suzanne Wootton, Marcus Lohrmann, Carol Hatch, Jon Gilbert, Jeremy Petty, Jodi Schueler, Carl Young, Derrek Young, J. The Journal Staff at Walla Walla High School has a very important job. They produce the Walla Walla High School Newspaper. Which you probably know it has the Wa-Hi Journal. To get the Wa-Hi Journal complete the Journal Staff has to interview people, get pictures, and much much more. Something new in this years Wa-Hi Journal was color. During the year the Wa-Hi Journal came out once every three weeks.

Judo

Andrew Morgan, Chris Mitchell, Mike Benedict, Doug Gisi, Adam Hutson, Thomas Snell, Erik Navarrete, Cheri Calkins, Denise Bunch, Shannon Hegsted, Anna Eichorn

This is the second year that Walla Walla High School has had the opportunity to have a Judo Club. Judo is based on strong belief of the orient and strong self discipline. On a daily bases they would walk into the Dojo(the wrestling room) and bow. They would stretch an run a few laps. They had to learn how to fall before anything cause there is a lot of throwing going on. Judo similar to wrestling on the ground techniques doing their grappling. Judo just adds a little spice to it.

Key Club

The Key Club is a Community Service Club. The Key Club sponsers many different projects such as the Canned Food Drive and the Blanket Drive. They also visit the Odd Fellows Home and the Humane Society and do other "serving the community" projects. The club Officers are Nicole Bankhead-President, Jeff Briggs-Vice President, Nikki Fontenot-Treasurer, and Jennifer Herres-Ssecretary.

L.A. Reps

L.A Reps are students elected by their homerooms to represent them at the Legislative meetings.. These students represent their fellow students and the school. The Representative takes in questions and concerns from their classmates and then bring them up at the meetings. At the meetings they discuss everything and the students then report back to their homerooms and inform the other students of the A.S.B activities and upcoming events.

L.A. Cabinet

L.A Cabinet consists of all the Class Officers and Commisioners. They meet once a month prior to legislative meetings to go over and preview different questions that come in from the Student Body at large. They set up the agenda for the student body meeting. They discuss items of importance regarding the governing of Wa-Hi, and incoming concerns and questions.

Mock Trial

The Mock Trial Competition is a program of the YMCA Youth and Government and co-sponsered by the Office if the Aministrator of the Courts. It is a national program for high school students. Students work with coaches in present a hypothetical legal case on a mock courtroom trial. They study the legal system and perfect their roles as an attourney or whitness. The trial is not scripted. Additionally each trial includes a pre-trial matter requiring students to debate the issue. Students acting as attourneys are judged on knowledge of the law, poise, persuasiveness, and the ability to present their case in a forceful, positive, articulate, and confident manner. Whitnesses are judged on thorough an dfactual answers, poise, persuasive role play, and credibility. The purpose of Mock Trial is not only to teach high school students about the legal system, but also to build many other skills such as the sbility to analyze a situation, interpret the written word and make inferences from that written word, and form structured logical arguments.

Walla Walla High School's Rally Club is a group of individuals who attend games and cheer for the mighty Blue Devils. By doing this they are helping to get the students into the school spirit. In a way, this group is like the unseen cheerleaders of Wa-Hi.

Shakespeare Club

Shakespeare club is a club for fans of William Shakepeare and his work in the past. They meet to discuss their performances of Shakespeare, and their fundraisers that allow them to take exciting trips. On the trips they will watch wonderful plays of shakespeare. One of their main adventures of the year is their exciting trip to Ashland.

Future Farmers of America throughout the years has established a strong group of over 100 active members that participate regularly at all levels of competition. There are several types of individual, and group, contests that build confidence, poise, and a positive attitude in themselves. Public speaking, sales and service, parliamentary procedure, and marketing are just some of the events offered through FFA. There are also activities that range from showing an animal at The Southeastern Washington Fair to tractor driving at the state level. As you can see, Future Farmers of America is a rewarding organization that is active in the school and community.
